Dear [REDACTED],

The Luther College High School Choir recently won the Sylvia Yam Memorial High School Chorus Scholarship. On behalf of the students in the choir I Thank You for this generous gift. I remember Mrs Yam - a great supporter of the arts and a wonderful singer. She is remembered.

Once again, Thank you! Sincerely,
Melissa Morgan

thank you

Dear Mr. [REDACTED],

I was honoured to have received the Sylvia Yam Memorial Intermediate Vocal Concert Group Scholarship this year at the Regina Music Festivals and I would like to express my profound gratitude for your generous support of the performing arts. As I finish my last year of highschool and take off to McMaster University in the fall, I have been reflecting on my experiences in the music community, which has been enhanced by your support. As I look back, I have come to learn that events such as the Regina Music Festival are about so much more than awards and scholarships. Rather, it is a learning experience that has helped me become a more confident musician. Your support has been key to the development of the festival, and has allowed me to share my love for music to many others.

Thank you so much for your continued support!

(P.S. I believe the last time I wrote to you was when I was in grade 9, my first year of highschool! Crazy how time flies!)

Sincerely,

Jasmine Zhang

Dear [REDACTED]

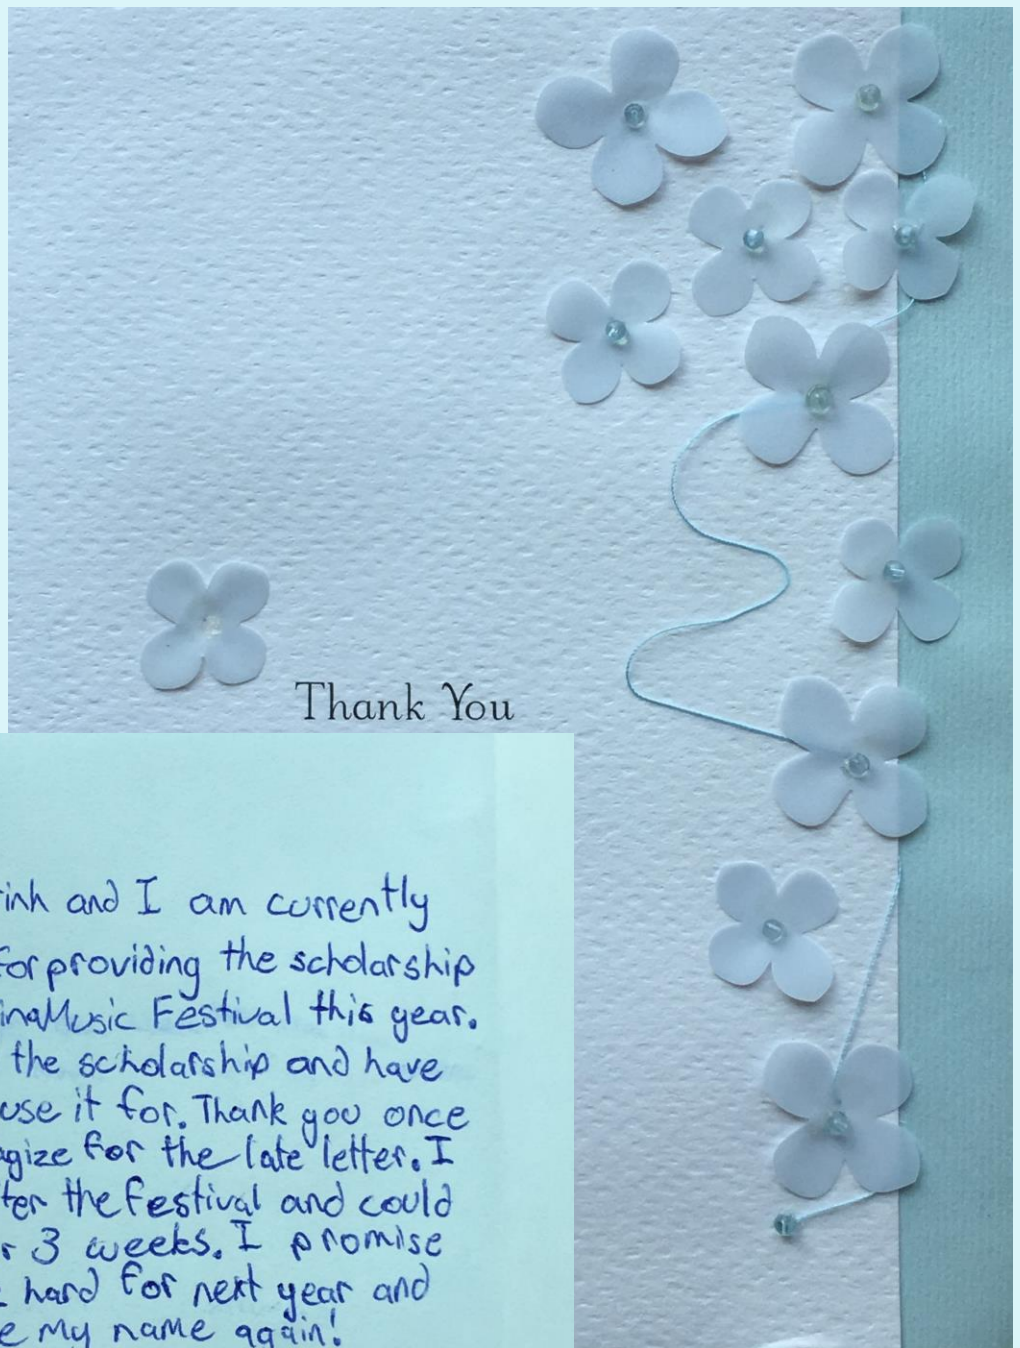

Thank you so much for this Scholarship again. This year at music festival was an amazing year for learning for me. Without people like you, it would be much harder for me to pursue my musical journey. Your contributions are greatly appreciated

From, Emma Cameron

Dear [REDACTED],

My name is Kevin Trinh and I am currently 13 years old. Thank you for providing the scholarship I received in the Regina Music Festival this year. I am very grateful for the scholarship and have not decided what to use it for. Thank you once again and I also apologize for the late letter. I broke my arm right after the festival and could not write anything for 3 weeks. I promise to continue to practice hard for next year and hopefully you will see my name again!

With many thanks,
Kevin Trinh
